CORTE DRINK MENU

This week's favourites

Louis Max Gamay Noir, Morgon, France 14/66

Beaujolais can be many things, from cheap grapey plonk to a dense, powerful, highly structured and age-worthy rival to good Burgundy. Happily, it's far more affordable than Burgundy! This wine is from one of the ten 'Crus' of Beaujolais, and has lovely rich fruit, christmas cake spices and fine, moreish tannins. Our favourite autumn red!

Corte Mulled Wine 12

One of the very few good points about this weather is the chance to enjoy our lovingly made mulled wine. It contains: shiraz, pedro ximénez, brandy, rosé, brown sugar, honey, berries, apple, pear, orange, quince paste, cloves, star anise, cinnamon and allspice, and we're confident you can't try this at home.
